Trevor Man Found Dead In Blaze

Bernard B. VandenBosch, 25, of Camp Lake, Wis., near Trevor, died in his burning home early Saturday morning.

VandenBosch's body was found in the utility room of the home. It was believed he died of smoke inhalation.

A neighbor, Fred Plattner, reported the fire to the Trevor and Wilmet fire departments at about 6 a.m. Albert Haven, Trevor, saw the fire at about the same time as he was going to work, and tried to enter the home, but the thick smoke drove him back. Firemen wearing rescue masks were finally able to enter the burning house and found the body.

The victim had lived alone in the house since October. The home belonged to his grandparents, and was partially destroyed by the blaze. Firemen were unable to find the cause of the fire.

VandenBosch was born November 6, 1939, in Chicago, and moved to Antioch at the age of 17. He lived here until moving to Trevor a month ago. He married Marilyn Herbst on July 14, 1962, in Chicago. He held membership in the Cement Masons & Rock Asphalt Layers Composition Masons Union, Local 502 in Chicago. He was a cement mason by occupation.

Survivors are his wife Marilyn and a daughter Christine, both of Grayslake; his parents, Bernard, Sr., and Ruth E. VandenBosch, Las Vegas, Nev.; a sister, Mrs. James (Nancy) Rogers, Carpentersville, Ill.; his paternal grandparents, Florence and Alphonse VandenBosch, Las Vegas, and his maternal grandparents, Fleta and Elbert Riggs, Norridge, Ill.

Strang Funeral Home, Antioch, handled the local arrangements. The body was then taken to the Oehler Funeral Home in Des Plaines, Ill. Interment was in Mt. Emblem cemetery at Elmhurst, Ill.

This year, the Goodfellowship Settlement organization has donated use of its building at 616 McAllister Ave. in Waukegan for use as a toy distribution center.

Albert Dittman, Superintendent, reported that the cost was $30 per student for the six-day period, with the parents and Music Association paying $18 per student and $12 per student paid by the board. The board approved the expenditure.

Stanley Visch, Lake Villa, was employed by the board as custodian, and part-time bus driver to replace Clarence Haase, who resigned.

Legion Collects Food For Needy

Several hungry families will have a nappier Thanksgiving because of a Skating party at the Lake Region Roller Rink last Wednesday night.

Sponsored by American Legion Post 748, price of admission to the party was canned food. The food was used to make up baskets to be distributed to the needy for Thanksgiving.

Jewel Food Store also donated food to help make up the baskets. About 40 persons attended the party, according to Jim Forrier, owner of the Rink.

Past Commander, George Ott, Ed Frazier, Bernie Stadick and Alex Hoffman were in charge of the arrangements at the party.

Art Contest Added Feature Of Play

A mischievous elf who must "earn his stripes" by doing a good deed for a mortal sets off the chain of events which make up the story of "The Elves and the Shoemaker," the Christmas production at the Palette, Masque & Lyre Theatre. The play, under the direction of Valerie McElroy, will be presented on Dec. 5 and 6, and 12 and 13. Curtain time is 2 p.m.

A children's art contest will be conducted in conjunction with the play. First-place winners from each grade from first through eighth will receive a ticket to the play. A prize will also be given to the over-all winner of all grades.

Winners of the first three places from each grade will have their pictures hung in the theatre during the performance of the play.

Nanci Seyfarth is in charge of the program. Children from grades one through four will color an elf drawn by Nanci as their entry. Grades 5 through 8 will do their own pictures, with the Elves and the Shoemaker as the theme. Deadline for entries is December 2. Anyone wishing information may call Nanci Seyfarth at 395-3684.

This is the first performance with the PM&L group of Mary Lou Parker, Phyllis Bucar and Candy Bentel. Lou Parker, who plays Finella, one of the three elves in the story, has previously worked backstage.

Phyllis Bucar (Meg) has a background of some dramatic work in college. Candy Bentel (Tabitha) is on stage for the first time.

Candy Sales Provide Food For Needy

The annual candy sale to supply baskets of food for the needy at Christmas was started by Grand Knight Vincent Stonis, Knights of Columbus, on November 10 in Antioch.

All churches in the area are contacted to supply the names of needy families. Baskets are provided according to the size of the families. Last year over 30 baskets were provided from the proceeds of the candy sale.

John Bajech is chairman of the candy sales. All members of the Knights of Columbus will have the candy to sell, also Thompson's Tavern, Klass's Men's Shop and the Little Gallery Art Shop.

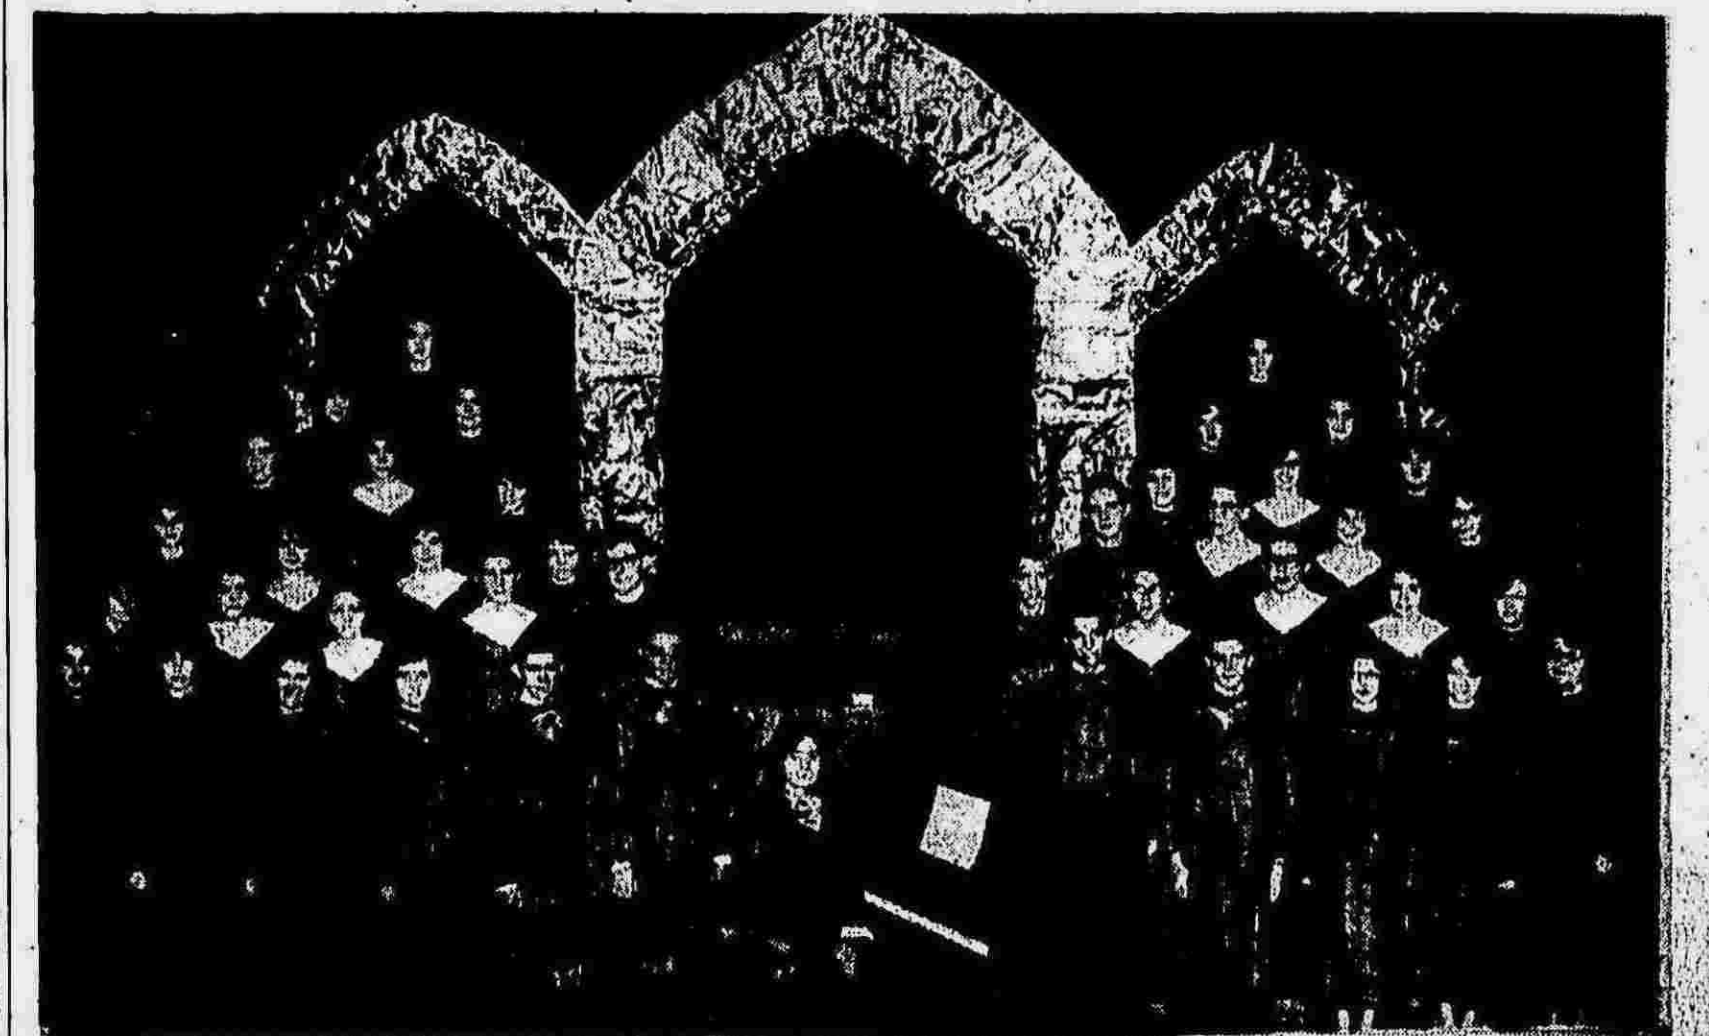

PHYLLIS BUCAR is Meg in The Elves and the Shoemaker.

LOU PARKER is Finella, an elf in the PM&L's Xmas play.

CANDY BENTEL plays Tabitha village girl in Elves and The Shoemaker.

THE ANTIOCH COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT CHOIR will present its annual Christmas Concert on December 6.

Make Someone Thankful

Few of us need to be reminded of all that we have to be thankful for on the one holiday that is so entirely an American holiday—Thanksgiving. Busy as we may be with the rush of preparations, we still find a few moments to dwell on the many blessings we have received.

This is a day when few are neglected, so far as material things are concerned. Baskets are distributed to the needy, so that all can join in the abundance of food; hospitals, orphanages, rest homes, make an extra effort to brighten the day for those who cannot be home.

But what of the lonely? Rich food alone is not enough for a happy holiday. It must be shared to be enjoyed.

For most, this is a time of family re-union. For some, there is no family left to share the day, or circumstances prevent the usual family gathering.

There's always room for one more at a crowded table. So why not give some lonely neighbor reason to be thankful this year by asking him, or her, to join your family for the day? Or, perhaps, some neglected, unpopular relative? Loneliness can be a greater hunger than mere want of food.

The Pilgrims invited the Indians to share the bounty of the harvest with them. Your Thanksgiving will have a warmer glow if you share it with someone who would otherwise be alone on this day.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

The power of the press is a force to be reckoned with—on occasion at least.

Recently this corner suggested that it might be time for Lake County to recognize the 20th Century and switch to mechanical voting machines thus eliminating the time consuming and fraudulent paper ballots.

The ink had scarcely dried on the edition when the Board of Supervisors revealed they were investigating just such a possibility.

In fact, Libertyville Supervisor Guy L. Grinnell revealed that voting machine vendors are among the best-represented firms at the annual state and national conventions of County Official Associations.

Another example of the sometime power of the press is the Board's tabling a suggestion that a new Executive Director of the Lake County Safety Commission be appointed.

This action by the county board followed some editorial eyebrow lifting by segments of the local press.

On the basis of subsequent conversations, however, it appears that the tabling action was aimed more at the proposed nominee than at the idea of re-instituting the post.

It has been suggested that advertisements be placed in safety-oriented national magazines in hopes of finding some "outsider" who has not been tainted by exposure to Lake County political groups.

The Lake County Public Building Commission took a major step forward last week with the opening of bids on construction bonds being sold to finance construction of the new county building complex in Waukegan.

Since such action would be impossible without a favorable opinion from the LaSalle St. branch of the Illinois Supreme Court, better known as Chapman and Cutler, experts on municipal bonds, it would appear that Atty. Paul Hamer, counsel for courthouse opponents, could save himself the expense of a trip to Springfield for his last ditch fight.

Renewed activity on the courthouse site is coming none too soon because the yawning excavation created a year ago to hold the new building is gradually filling up and several thousands of dollars will have to be spent to get it cleaned out and ready for use.

Voters who complained about the oversized orange ballot for the election of State Representatives in the recent election can take comfort in the thought that bad as the big sheet was it could have been much worse.

The House of Representatives in the special session last spring specified that each party should nominate a maximum of 118 candidates and sentiment was strong for a maximum list of 100 candidates.

The State Senate amended the bill specifying a minimum of 118 candidates and took the position that each party should nominate 177 candidates, which would have compounded the felony to a ridiculous degree.

With projected tabulations of the legislative vote giving the Democrats 118 or two-thirds of the House, it is conceivable under the Senate program that not even one Republican would be gracing the legislative halls in Springfield.

Look for some lawsuits challenging the validity of the legislative election when the counting is finally completed and the legislators certified because the state constitution specifies that State Representatives are to be elected on a cumulative vote basis . . . and wouldn't that have made a dandy counting process out of the election.

Among the many blessings we can give Thanks for on this Thanksgiving Day is the foresight of the legislators in eliminating this constitutional clause, even if the action was illegal.

And speaking of Thanksgiving, remember way back when it was an important holiday on our national calendar and not just a day stuck in to interrupt the early Christmas shopping?

Too many pedestrians walk as if they had the right-of-way. They seem unconcerned about traffic dangers. When this is true, they are flirting with death. Be more careful when walking. Use crosswalks, obey traffic signals.

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

It is always a source of amazement to me how when the first tinkle of the Christmas bells begin, hearts reach out for those less fortunate than they. What happens to "man's humanity to man" the other eleven months of the year? Are we so blind as to think that people only become struck by poverty and tragedy and humiliation once a year? My thought is that more than an endless row of "baskets" a sort of clearing house is needed for those who suddenly find themselves in dire circumstances and for whom the endless miles of governmental red-tape cannot be waited upon to entangle. Please give this some consideration and perhaps we may be able to extend the hand of friendship to someone in need ANY day of the year!

THE LATEST REPORT: Mesdames Bucar, Haviland, Vojtech and Lubkeman launched the Holiday partying with a gay dinner and bridge evening last Wednesday at Joe & Helen's Little Acres. . . . Betty and Art Meyer attended the P.W.A.A. (Paint and Wallpaper Assn. of America) convention at the Conrad Hilton in Chicago last week-end. Looks like a Dec. 4 opening for the new shoe store on Main St., appropriately dubbed The Shoe Box.

NOTES TO YOU: The long or short of the Lions Club Holiday Ball seems to be the gown discussion by every Lions lady. . . . Jack Sampayo wants it known that the name of the "pot hole" to the rear of the Bowling Alley is not Ducks Unlimited! . . . Dec. 5 will also (in addition to the Lions Ball) be the date for the Antioch Grade School P.T.A.'s annual Smorgasbord supper.

THE LAST DROP: Sadly Miss Barbara Domek and Mr. Ernie Mehling announced the postponement of their Nov. 20th wedding due to the injuries Ernie rec'd in an auto-accident in last Friday's bad storm. . . . Hope you enjoyed getting the bird yesterday, and I want you to know one of the things for which I am most grateful, is you.

Thankfully yours, Annie Mae colored banners of their candidates. As I drove through the seeming gauntlet, exuberant shouts of "Vote Republican," "Vote Democrat," "Blaisdell for Mayor," etc. came from all sides.

A kindly Hawaiian was directing incoming and outgoing traffic, and asked me to please be patient until he could secure a parking place for me. Children were running and playing in the schoolyard (it is a school holiday), and as I walked toward the long lines waiting in front of the voting room, I was joined by an elderly couple and a younger woman who conversed earnestly in Japanese.

I took my place in line behind a tall willowy girl of Chinese ancestry. Behind me stood a young couple. The husband was a dark husky Hawaiian-Oriental, the wife—a petite, fair haired, fair skinned Caucasian, obviously pregnant. I idly wondered which ancestry would predominate in their child, or if through it another link would be forged in the bond of racial tolerance and understanding.

Here it was not the Smiths or the Nelsons who had difficulty finding the right name on the voting lists, but the Chuns and the Nakamuras. Names like M. Takabuki, On Char, Chikazuye, and Kau-hano appeared more frequently on my ballot than names like Anderson, Clark, and Kennedy.

As I stood there in my go-ahead and cool minimum in the warm sun, I wondered how many voters were fighting a bitter wind, or perhaps ice and snow.

It was a glorious day in Hawaii. It was a day when all men are equal. How was it with you in Antioch?

Aloha,

Dear Sirs:

As president of the Freshman class at Antioch High School, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Antioch News for printing that wonderful article about the "Bundle Days" being sponsored by the Freshman class at Antioch Community High School.

To Whom It May Concern:

For some time we have observed the various village projects, improvements and repairs, which have been achieved by Mr. Edgar Simonsen and his associated village employees. We feel that words of commendation are in order for their efficiency, co-operation and pride in doing a good job which is evident and so very necessary for the best accomplishments with the limited funds available.

We are all willing to complain at times but we feel credit should be given when or where due.

At this time of Thanksgiving we would like to express our thanks and appreciation for these dedicated men, as well as the efficient and loyal members of the Village Board.

Sincerely yours,

Helen M. Olson

To the Editor:

Our Boys in the Back

Room, 3rd Floor, Courthouse

(where one commands an excellent view of the "hole" for which we are to pay $425,000 lease for the coming year) appear to be victims of the mafia of the times—Green Stamp shopping—the bargain you buy which you don't need because it carries with it, stamps, which if accumulated in mass afford you the privilege of choosing for free an item you don't need, thereby necessitating your disposing of an old possession to make room for the new.

The "Green Stamps" which fascinate our Boys are the State and Federal matching funds which we just "can't afford to pass up" no matter how much it costs us to get them.

Civil Defense (really an anachronism with "peace-keeping" Mr. Johnson at the helm) has jumped from a $23,178 budget item last year to $60,860 for the coming year. The Niki base we purchased from the U. S. Government for $1 will now cost us $20,000 to maintain, and who in his right mind would condemn the purchase of $15,000 worth of radio equipment if the U. S. Govt. pays 1/2 the tab? These are bargains no hard-headed business man overlooks.

And take the matter of the $26,730 U. S. grant to the Health Department which only necessitates our expending $15,000 extra in salaries to utilize it. Again we're getting something for practically nothing—$26,730 of OUR tax money back from Washington (There are various estimates as to how much we send in to get a dollar back—conservatively $1.50—so for $40,095 plus the $15,000 in extra wages, we'd gotten ourselves a $26,730 "gift" for $55,095) and no hard-headed business man could overlook this bargain either.

Then there is the privilege of matching state funds for state roads—not really our County problem—but the state, despite Mr. Kerner's insistence of financial stability, can't afford maintenance and construction of state roads through the County—so it is offering us the "gift" of 1/2 of their obligation if we'll produce the other. This "gift" takes a little deeper understanding of present day economics than most of us possess. Just a quick glance would convince an old fogey that we're paying $365,000 for helping the state do $730,000 worth of its own work. It takes a pretty sharp business man to figure out how we profit on this one but, fortunately our County Board is composed of pretty sharp business men.

The Budget for the Safety Commission illustrates, not the astuteness but the humaneness of our County Board. Those of us who are always screaming "economy" forced the Board to curtail expenditure for the Safety Commission. Highway death rose and our Supervisors realized that petty economy can not be practiced if, in the slightest degree, it constitutes a threat to the safety of one of their constituents. Even at the risk of being dubbed "political" they reactivated the position of Safety Commissioner and raised the salary to make sure their new appointee would be of the highest caliber.

There are many other items in the budget which present interesting speculations, but suffice to say we're going to get the same sort of outstanding representation next year, as we had this past year with a mere 22% increase in the levy for County government.

I hate to end on a sour note but if there are some among you who can't quite appre-

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for instance. The greatest tiger of them all. Even real tigers cower when this baby speaks. It loads 335 horses under that hood. Plus bucket seats. Carpeting. Real walnut dash. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. And of course the GTO's optional 360-hp engine puts it so far out in front of the pack that it gets kind of lonesome. Then there's the Le Mans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Only with slightly smaller teeth. But don't worry. It can still handle the pussycats. So quick, go price a tiger!

Illinois Tax Facts

In recent years the State of Illinois has spent more for highways than for any other single purpose, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois reports today. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Motor Fuel Tax and motor vehicle registration and related fees ranked second only to the Sales Tax (ROT) as sources of revenue for the State.

In late years all but a very small portion of the revenue from highway-user levies has been devoted to highway purposes. Of a net total of $250,510,000 received in 1960 from the Motor Fuel Tax and motor vehicle registration and related fees, only $2,484,000 was used for non-highway purposes, such as for administration, inspection fees, etc. It is true that the Illinois General Assembly, on July 31, 1961, authorized a temporary loan of not to exceed $34,000,000 by transfer from the Motor Fuel Tax Fund to the General Revenue Fund if it became necessary to meet the demands upon the General Revenue Fund. The total amount so borrowed was $17,000,000 and this was repaid in January 1964.

Since 1953 Illinois has taxed motor fuel at the rate of 5c per gallon, and diesel fuel is taxed at this same rate. Many have said that this policy creates an inequality as between operators of gasoline powered and diesel powered vehicles. Studies by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads have demonstrated that gasoline powered vehicles consume substantially more fuel per mile than diesel powered vehicles consume substantially more fuel per mile than diesel powered vehicles of the same size operating under the same conditions.

The cost of collecting the Motor Fuel Tax is low, and the experience in Illinois compares favorably with that in other states. The cost of collection in Illinois in 1960 was .51 per cent of the net Motor Fuel Tax receipts, as compared with a national weighted average cost of collection of .62 per cent.

All Motor Fuel Tax revenue after deducting 2% of the gross receipts allowed to licensed distributors for handling, is paid into the Motor Fuel Tax Fund. Then the cost of collection administration and refunds is next deducted, along with the sum of $50,000 per month which is paid into the Grade Crossing Protection Fund to cover the State's share of the cost of projects of this type. The remainder is allocated as follows:

- 35% to the State Road Fund, for expenditure by the Division of Highways;
- 32% to municipalities (in proportion to population);
- 12% to Cook County;
- 11% to downstate counties (in proportion to motor vehicle registration fees);
- 10% to townships, road districts, or township districts (in proportion to their road mileage).

Local Man On Damaged Ship

USCGC OWASCO (FH170C)—Coast Guard Commander Robert A. Schulz, son of Mr. Charles A. Schulz of Route 5, Antioch, is aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Owasco, now on Ocean Station in the North Atlantic Ocean.

The cutter has reported $10,000 damage caused by stormy seas. Fifty knot winds started on Nov. 9 and by the 11th, the wind velocity had increased to a steady 60 knots. Twenty-seven foot high seas and an average 48 degrees air temperature accompanied the storm.

Most of the damage was to the ship's gun mounts. Despite the heavy seas and equipment loss, none of the crew has been reported injured.

The ship will continue her patrol until Nov. 26, when she is scheduled to be relieved by another Coast Guard vessel. The Owasco is due to arrive Dec. 1, in her home port at New London, Conn.

Parents have a hard time getting teenagers to hang up things—coats, hats, dresses and worst of all, the telephone.

CHICAGO—Main Exhibition Barn (foreground above) and Dairy Barn post typical midwest farm architecture in Lincoln Park's unique Farm-in-the-Zoo which opened to the public on November 20. The two big barns, painted red with white trim, are first and major structures of this in-city educational agricultural project sponsored by The Lincoln Park Zoological Society with the cooperation of The Chicago Park District. The 44 by 80 foot Main Barn is a gift of Walter Egan and his wife, Ida. Holstein cows, now-born calves and a modern milking parlor are housed in the Dairy Barn, donated by The Milk Foundation, Inc., of Chicago.

City Youngsters To See Real Farm In Operation

CHICAGO—A unique in-city education agricultural project became reality with the dedication of Lincoln Park's new Farm-in-the-Zoo, sponsored by The Lincoln Park Zoological Society with the cooperation of The Chicago Park District.

Here, beginning Friday (Nov. 20), city children may become acquainted with live domestic animals on the five acre Zoo-farm just south of and adjacent to Lincoln Park Zoo.

In the 40 by 80 foot main barn, they may see steers, ewes and lambs, sows and piglets and baby chicks hatching.

The Dairy Barn now houses a Holstein herd. The four million annual visitors to Lincoln Park Zoo may now learn where milk really comes from by watching dairy cows being milked in the Barn's modern milking parlor. The 62 by 65 foot Dairy Barn was donated by the Milk Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization supported by some 18,000 dairy farmers and dairy products distributors in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Ultimately this urban farm will include special barns for horses, beef cattle, swine and sheep, and a poultry house, too. Upon completion, the Farm-in-the-Zoo will represent an estimated investment of more than $500,000.

Easy-To-Read Phone Book Coming In '65

An easier-to-read telephone directory containing larger print and a new section of local area listings will be introduced by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. in Antioch and nearby communities in 1965.

"It's all part of an extensive directory service improvement program designed to meet our customers' standards as they have related them to us," said Manager Dick Miller.

Miller cited these improvements:

1. A new section in the front of the directory will contain listings of telephone customers in Antioch and nearby communities only.
2. These listings will be printed in larger type for easier reading.
3. The listings in the present regional directory will be placed in the back of the directory behind the Yellow Pages.

Here's how the directory will be arranged: first there will be a few pages of local and long distance dialing information, then the local area White Pages section followed by the Yellow Pages and finally the regional listings. This means each customer's listing will appear twice: once in the local section and again in the regional section.

These regional listings are being retained because the majority of telephone users in this area do quite a bit of calling outside their local area, the manager said.

"These changes we are making are the ones our customers have requested in order to make the directory more useful," the manager explained.

According to Gordon Ailer, vice president and general manager of Suburban Area, Illinois Bell will spend more than $1 million in the next two years and almost 1/2-million in each succeeding year to make these improvements in every one of its 50 Suburban directories.

Ailer further noted that in the past two years Illinois Bell has reduced rates on station-to-station long distance calls made after 9 p.m., established after-hours repair service centers, replaced old-type phones with new models, improved "hearabil-

Future Nurses Club Organized At Central

The Future Nurses Club of Salem Central High School was awarded its National Charter on Monday, November 16. It was granted on the recommendation of Mr. Vernon Horn, Principal of the school.

At present there are 48 members enrolled. As a chartered club, the Central Club is participating in a national youth program to help the nation meet future nursing needs.

Field trips to Milwaukee hospitals, panel discussions from Kenosha County Nurse's Association, and other activities are planned for the year.

On December 5 a trip to Milwaukee hospital is planned, and on Monday, November 23 from 4:00 to 5:15 the Kenosha County Nurse's Association presented a panel. Two former students at Central, now nurses, were part of that panel.

Faculty adviser is Mr. John Dorris and officers of the club are: President—Carol Haubrich; vice-president—Sharon Fox; secretary—Chris Cook, and treasurer—Carol Foulke.

Total membership in this club, sponsored by Committee of Careers, now stands at approximately 130,000. The majority of clubs have been organized since 1950.

Meeting at the Sherman House, the delegates and members participated in 46 panel discussions, covering such important topics as: "Life Safety Code for the Public Schools"; "Living with the Tenure Law"; "Report of Property Tax Council of the State of Illinois"; "New Trends in Vocational-Technical Education"; "Recent Court Decisions, Attorney General's Opinions and Current School Legal Problems"; "The Anti-Poverty Program—(Implications for Public Education)"; "Developing and Adopting Personnel Policies"; and many other panel discussions of interest to board members and administrators. ## Now-buy a new electric dryer and save up to $60

You'll get the $20 to $40 savings you normally expect when you buy a flameless electric dryer instead of gas—plus a special $20 cash discount from Commonwealth Edison. And once you buy a new flameless electric dryer, you'll find the savings don't end with the purchase price. Because there are few moving parts, electric dryers are more economical to maintain. With no pilot light, they cost nothing when not in use. An average family can dry the modern electric way for only $1.25 a month.* What's more, because there are no fumes, flames or products of combustion, things keep fresh and new looking longer—you'll save money on your clothes.

See your dealer for the money-saving details now. No down payment. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer guaranteed, of course.

*Based on the actual use of a cross-section of Chicagoland families.

Winter Driving Safety Hints

This is the perfect time for motorists to brush up on their winter driving habits, according to Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

He pointed out that drivers can do little to ease poor weather conditions, but they can be prepared to do something about improving their winter driving skill.

"A winter changeover doesn't mean just adding antifreeze to your car radiator," Cavanagh said. "The changeover also should take place in the attitude of the driver himself."

Tests have proven that the greatest skidding dangers exist when it is just cold enough for water to freeze. The braking distance on glaze ice is twice as long with the temperature at 30 degrees than it is with a zero reading.

Cavanagh said it is easy for drivers to forget how slippery roads can get, and he noted that most skidding accidents occur in the pre-winter and early winter months because motorists are mentally unprepared for the need for greater driving caution.

He offered the following winter driving safety suggestions:

—Wet or slushy roads and streets, usually accompanied by early darkness, require cautious driving at reduced speeds.

—Falling sleet or snow and splashes of wet snow from passing cars make it essential that windshield wipers and defrosters be in perfect working condition.

—During stormy weather, when visibility is at a premium, headlights—not parking lights—should be turned on as a warning to motorists and pedestrians.

—For emergency situations, a bucket of salt, salt or cinders, and a shovel always should be carried in the car trunk.

—Allow yourself more time to get to and from your destination.

... answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. My family moved recently, and now I'm the new girl in a big school where I don't know a soul. There's a mixer next week and I just know that if I go I'll get the benediction award for 1964. My mother says I should go, but wouldn't it be better to wait until I know at least a few people?

A. The mixer can be your chance to make a successful, and painless, debut at the new school. Simply because you are new, everyone will be eager to meet you. To make sure everything gets off to the right start, be extra careful about dressing for the mixer. Wear something you especially like, so you'll feel your prettiest. And, of course, check to make sure you know what kind of dress is expected. Once there, don't be shy about introducing yourself to people. A cheerful, "Hi, I'm Mary Newgal," is all the starter you'll need.

Q. When I go to a tea or any other party where people leave at different times I never know how to say goodbye to the hostess. Usually I just hang around until I can leave with other people and leave the exit lines to them. What should I say when I have to leave alone?

Phone Company Speaks Out Against Excise Tax

The administration's announced plans to seek cuts in excise taxes on certain luxury items leaves telephone customers still paying 10 percent on their monthly bills, an Illinois Bell Telephone spokesman has said.

Hale Nelson, vice president, Illinois Bell Telephone, expressed disappointment that the burden of a 10 per cent tax on a business and domestic necessity may be left on the shoulders of the nation's telephone customers.

Secretary of the Treasury Dillon, following a meeting with President Johnson on November 11, announced plans to ask Congress to reduce or eliminate taxes on such items as toilet articles and cosmetics, jewelry, furs and leather goods.

Nelson commented: "With all the discussion about excise tax cuts, I am astonished that it is proposed to cut seldom-bought luxury items like furs and handbags and to leave off the recommended list a necessity like telephone service. The telephone user has been paying this tax every month, every year, for more than 20 years as a 'temporary wartime' tax."

"It was originally put on to discourage telephone usage during the war. A telephone customer is now paying an average of about $22 a year in federal excise taxes and unless action is taken, at the next Congress, he will continue to do so. All emergency excise taxes on utility users, except the tax on telephone service, have been repealed."

In their testimony before congressional committees asking repeal, telephone companies have pointed out that phone service today is a necessity rather than a luxury and that the tax falls most heavily on the low-income user. It also increases the cost of doing business for every company in the land. Since the tax is levied directly against the individual consumer, its elimination would mean that full savings would go to him. "This one is on you," the telephone company said.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

"NO" IS A USEFUL WORD By C. Robert Gruver, Editor

All About Babies

There was a time, when our son was little, that parents were taken to task for using the word, "no." Parents were cautioned that to say, "no" to a child would frustrate him.

Being young and inexperienced parents, the thought that we were frustrating our little boy kept us awake nights. For with a toddler in the house, "no" was a very important and useful word.

We were, at the time, living in the upper half of a two-family house. An open staircase led downstairs to the outside door. Whenever our toddler son got too close to the top of the stair, the magic word, "no," kept him back. It should be pointed out this was at the beginning of his toddling stage when he was under a watchful eye.

He began to learn that the top of the stair was a place to keep away from. When he forgot himself or thought he would check if the ban was still in force, a quick "no" was all the reminding he needed.

As soon as he became more sure of himself and could be trusted to toddle about without constant close supervision we put a folding gate across the top of the stair. We found the gate a very useful device to keep our baby's environment as safe as possible during his very early years. A toddler may toddle out of reach, in one of those fractions of a minute when mother is occupied and there is no one to say "no." The physical barrier is an added safeguard.

Even with the gate up, we still worked toward the goal of helping our little boy learn what he could and could not do and when necessary we used the word, "no." We felt we would rather have our little boy shed a few tears because we said, "no," than have those tears be the result of an accident that could cause serious injury.

When it comes to keeping baby safe and out of danger, the word, "no," can be of extreme value. A child's safety will often depend upon this one word and how quickly it is said and obeyed. The word, "no," is at times the only way to teach a crawling baby or a toddler. You can't expect a baby to understand and to reason.

One added thought. Useful as the word "no," is, it can be overworked and thus lose its effectiveness. Reserve it for important situations, especially as part of your baby's safety program.

DIAPER HYGIENE — 12-15 MONTHS

By Erma W. Macready, R. N. Baby Care Counselor Pensacola, Florida

Baby, between twelve and 15 months of age, doesn't seem to be a baby any more. From a tiny helpless infant, baby has become a sturdy and agile little person with a mind of his own.

Many mothers, at this time, become conscious of baby's need for less changes. Baby now usually is able to stay dry for as long as two hours at a time. As a result, mothers often develop a false sense of security about the threat of diaper rash. If baby doesn't wet so often, they reason, there no longer is any need for concern.

This fallacy is the subject of this sixth in a series of guest columns by baby care counselors on maintaining good diaper hygiene during baby's entire diaper-wearing age.

It is a mistake to think that diaper rash occurs only during baby's early months. Babies can get diaper rash as long as they wear diapers. For that matter, the most distressing and dangerous cases of diaper rash tend to be among older babies. This was found to be so in a study reported in the Journal of Diseases of Children published by the American Medical Association. The study showed that the most serious cases of diaper rash did not occur in infants but in children over one year of age.

The possibility of diaper rash remains as long as diapers are worn. It is therefore important that the fastidious diapering routine followed when baby was young, or be continued. Baby should be changed promptly with correctly processed diapers.

Even though the toilet training period when training pants are worn by day and diapers for naps and at night, diapers should be processed just as carefully as in previous months. The six steps in the proper processing of diapers at home are explained in a free booklet, "A Mother's Guide to Diaper Hygiene." Write, the National Baby Care Council, 1820 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., 19103.

Here's another hint for the comfort of a growing baby. Make sure the diaper is not too small nor pinned too tightly. Nothing upsets baby more quickly than restricted motion. Your diaper service counselor can tell you what size diapers to order and give you hints on pinning them for greater baby comfort.

Sequoits Open Cage Season With Victory

Antioch successfully opened their 1964-65 basketball campaign Saturday when they handed the McHenry Warriors their second defeat in as many nights. Playing on their home court, the Sequoits pulled to a 12 point lead at halftime and held on to win 63 to 57.

The Sequoits were never behind after they overcame a one point deficit early in the contest. Leading 14 to 7 at the first quarter the Sequoits defense continued to plague the Warriors' attack. By halftime Antioch had increased their lead to 34 to 22.

With Vic Rogers and Bob Schmitz both in foul trouble, McHenry closed the gap to 8 points at the third quarter with the scoreboard at 49 to 41.

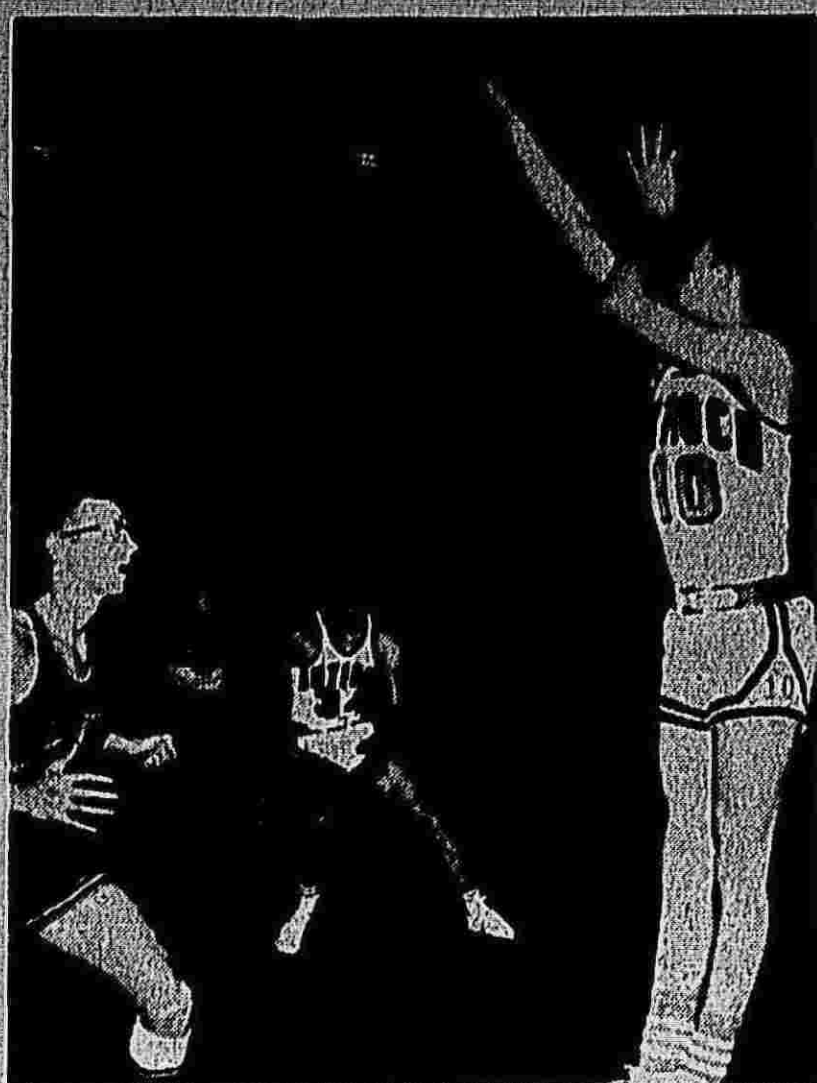

McHenry narrowed the margin to 5 points at one time in the final quarter, but the Sequoits held on to register their first win of the season.

Bernie Smith led the scoring for both teams with 27 points on 8 baskets and 11 free throws. Schmitz added 10 while sophomore Tyrone Walls added 8 counters and did a fine job on defense. Smith was also the leading rebounder for the Sequoits with 14. Vic Rogers eat out most of the second and third quarters but still managed to get 7 points and 6 rebounds.

Coach Roger Andrews was especially pleased with the play of his reserves. "Tom Blackman did a real fine job for us replacing Vic when he got in foul trouble," Andrews said. Blackman scored 5 points and played well defensively.

Ken Laurence and Hiller led the scoring for McHenry with 13 points each. Statistically the Sequoits made 24 of 58 from the field for 41% and 15 of 28 at the charity line. McHenry had 20 of 78 and 17 of 26 at the free throw line.

The Sequoits will play Batavia Friday night to open the Mooseheart Tournament at Mooseheart. They will meet either Mooseheart or Lake Park Saturday night in

Have you had a physical or a periodic vision check recently? Periodic vision checks are a must as a driver grows older. The average 55 year old driver with 20-20 vision needs twice as much lights as a 20 year old with the same visual rating. Vision defects are exaggerated at night. On today's high speed highway, small errors can make the difference between life and death!

The scheme seems to be that men like to be listened to—so women listen to be liked.

Manpower Study

"A U.S. Department of Labor manpower study indicates that the biggest increases in employment during this decade are taking place in occupations that require the most education and training.

"The largest increase (40%) was registered by the professional and technical occupations group, averaging 16.2 years of education. Clerical and sales workers show an increase of 20%, with group members averaging 12.5 years of schooling. Three other groups — proprietors and managers, skilled workers and service workers — will register gains of approximately 25%. No increased demand is anticipated for unskilled labor. Farm labor will decline sharply (18%).

"These manpower requirements plus the necessity for middle-aged workers to update skills and knowledge indicates the need for increased vocational education and industrial training."—Lockport Herald.

Xmas Kettles Usher In Holiday Season

Newly-painted a bright holiday red, the Christmas Kettles of The Salvation Army will make their annual appearance in Chicago and suburbs on Friday (Nov. 27) ready for the contributions that will make Christmas a happy time for the needy.

The kettles are little, but they have leading roles in The Salvation Army "Stars of Cheer" Christmas campaign. Located at busy street corners and shopping centers each shopping day through Christmas Eve, the kettles are The Salvation Army's major appeal to the public for help in bringing Christmas joy to some 44,000 needy persons in the metropolitan Chicago area.

"Christmas is an important day, but we must not give the unfortunate Christmas presents and then forget them for another year," declared Commissioner Samuel Hepburn, commander of The Salvation Army in the Middle West. "Contributions to The Salvation Army Christmas campaign support not only the holiday activities, but also other Salvation Army programs which offer help to the needy all year long. You and The Salvation Army together can put the Christmas spirit into every day."

Starting with a limited number of kettle locations, Salvation Army officials hope to have 137 kettles in use as the holiday season advances. The kettle stands will be attended by bell-ringing cadets, officers, soldiers and Salvationists wearing regulation navy blue uniforms or cheery red capes.

The contributions dropped into the kettles finance a Christmas program in the Chicago area which includes holiday dinners and gifts for needy families; festive parties for youngsters, golden agers and homeless and handicapped men; toys and treats for children; gifts for patients in military and civilian hospitals; for residents of homes for the aged; for men and women in correctional institutions; and warmth and cheer for the lonely and forgotten.

At Christmas time last year, at its corps and institutions throughout the United States, The Salvation Army provided holiday dinners and other assistance for more than 1,650,000 persons and distributed more than 550,000 toys to needy children.

Building Drops This Year In Chicago Metropolitan Area

Building permits for both homes and apartments declined in the Chicago metropolitan area in October from the previous year. The area includes Lake County, Cook, Kane, DuPage, Will and Lake County, Indiana.

Buildings of all types in Lake County amounted to $977,432.00 in October, 1964, as compared to $1,436,404 in October, 1963.

Building permits for 39 homes, worth $870,350 in October, 1964. In October, 1963, 28 homes were built at a cost of $602,530.

Around the turn of the century, people were amazed when someone drove 20 miles an hour. They still are.

Channel Lake News

By Louise Gutowski
395-1317

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irman of Woodbine Ave. became the proud parents of their fifth daughter Friday, November 20, at Victory Memorial Hospital. Little Ellen Marie weighed in at 8 lbs. 14 oz. Mrs. Irman is the co-leader of Girl Scout Troop 204 and Mr. Irman is active in the PM&L Little Theater Group in Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harland, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Enzenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Melerdick and Mrs. Gladys Zobus attended the National Convention of School Boards at the Sheraton Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott attended the same convention as representatives of Grant High School Board. Mr. Scott is the Superintendent of Channel Lake Grade School. Don't forget the Community Club Square Dance and Box Social Sunday, Dec. 6 in the school gym. Dance caller and teacher will be Joe Gibson, well known caller in the square dance circuit.

The Channel Lake PTA will sponsor a Fun Fair and Bazaar, Friday and Saturday, December 4 and 5 in the school gym. It will be held from 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. on Friday and 6 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. on Saturday. Volunteers for running the games and donations of homemade articles for the Gift Shop are urgently needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberman attended a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Petty of Antioch, Saturday evening, Nov. 20.

In the comparatively safer conditions of expressways, overdriving your headlights can be double dangerous. Remember at 60 mph it takes about 968 feet—23 car lengths—to stop under good conditions. At 70 mph it takes about 1532 feet—33 car lengths! That's far beyond headlight range, so leave more distance between yourself and the car ahead at night.

The Minimum Wage Problem

The head of the AFL-CIO union declares that an increase in the minimum wage of $2 an hour is needed. Congress will be asked to approve that figure, or one approaching it, when it convenes next year.

Many people who are sincerely concerned with the problems of the low income groups will probably look favorably on this proposal. But there is much more involved than meets the superficial eye. There is every danger that an excessive minimum wage may seriously harm the interests of those it is supposed to help.

Various businesses have room for people whose skills are extremely limited. Retaining is a prime example. It offers employment to youngsters just starting out in the business world, to part-time housewives, and to others whose value to the store is slight. If the minimum wage is boosted to the point where productivity of these workers cannot justify it, one result is certain—store operators will be forced to seek ways and means of getting along with fewer marginal workers. Then the unskilled will find it harder and harder to get jobs and to obtain the experience that would qualify them for higher pay. It may be argued that the stores and the other businesses affected could solve the problem by the simple expedient of raising prices. But that is much more easily said than done in this era of intense competition. And if it could be done, the burden of higher prices and inflation would fall heaviest on the low wage group.

It may also be argued that the stores could use a part of their profits to take care of higher costs. But these profits are a great deal less than is generally believed. Food chains, for instance, commonly earn only a little more than a penny on each dollar of sales. There's just no margin for absorbing wage increases.

What it all comes down to is that worker productivity and wage levels are inseparably related. A law which ignores that fact must do more harm than good.

Thanksgiving is a happy time when families gather to relax and enjoy festive meals. But more important than this it is a time when we should "give thanks." Thanks for the freedom that we enjoy every day of our lives. Freedom founded by the Pilgrims and preserved by the courageous dedication of our forefathers. It is this freedom which has brought our nation strength and offers to all of those who strive for it, the good things of life in overwhelming abundance. Yes ... let us take time to "give thanks" on this Thanksgiving Day.
